"When all things are lost and there is no hope left, there is always, somewhere in the world, one person you can turn to. There may be only that one person. More often than not there is only that one person. But that one is always there."

Winston Churchill

Although said during World War II, those of us that know Bunny Knoll agree on the accuracy of these words: - At age 14, she has produced three plays (one which she wrote) using Taylor Ranch children; has volunteered to head the 1984 TRNA Easter Egg Hunt (after 2 years working on the committees); has become the most sought after babysitter in Taylor Ranch because of her love of and attention to children; has helped people in need clean house, throw parties, deliver fliers and simultaneously maintained excellent grades in school. Her poise and graciousness in varied situations is noteworthy. To Bunny, the word "necessary" is equivalent to "perfect". For all these reasons and many more that would take pages to enumerate, the TRNA Board of Directors voted to give Bunny Knoll, daughter of Norma Eager, a commendation which will be presented at our annual Christmas Party (which she is also helping with). Congratulations, Bunny, for recognition well earned!!!

TRNA 1983 ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

(Friday, December 2, 7-10 pm, Marie Hughes Elementary, Cafeteria)

Our Annual Christmas Party is just around the corner, complete with visions of good food, excellent company, and Santa bringing gifts to all children under the age of 12. TRNA is providing the meats (turkey, ham, salami) and cheeses and bread and rolls and cake and coffee and tea and orange drink. If you plan to attend, please call Ann Marie Sun 897-0044 or Susie Sinnock 898-6270 and let us know. We must tell Santa how many children will be there. We also ask that you plan to bring your favorite dish to supplement this dinner. The General Membership meeting will be held immediately after dinner and should be short and sweet. There will also be a free drawing for three stuffed animals for the children as well as gifts for all. This should be the best Christmas Party yet...$2 for non-TRNAer
