Happy Valentine's Day !

President's Message By Eddie Costello

One of the topics at our last Board Meeting was a concern about the increase of litter in our neighborhoods, medians, parks and other public places in Taylor Ranch.

What can be done about this???

Education is the first step. We must educate everyone that littering is not acceptable! TRNA will be working with the Mayors Office to help with an anti littering campaign and clean up projects over the next several months.

We are always looking for volunteers to help organize trash pick ups and help with other projects. If you would like to be involved and learn more about what's going on in your community, please come to our next Board Meeting on February 18th from 7:00-9:00pm. ☀

Holiday Party Drawing Winners

Thank you to the 80 TRNA members who renewed their memberships early and so were entered into our "early renewal" drawing at the Holiday Party on December 6th.

Christine & Don Schneider won the beautiful Alberta Spuce tree donated by Sunscape Landscaping. Anthony & Lucille Andolina won the singing snowman and snowwoman donated by Brownell's Hallmark located in Petroglyph Plaza.

Many thanks to Sunscape and Brownell's for their generous donations. Please think of them when you need the services and goods which they provide.

Westside Coalition Meeting Report

You may have seen the Albuquerque Journal's report on the January Westside Coalition Meeting.

The controversial topic of the evening was State Senator Joe Carraro's proposal that Westside residents be allowed to decide whether or not they wish to remain in the city of Albuquerque. While some attendees were concerned that secession would result in increased taxes and decreased services, most were interested in having the option to vote. They felt that Westside residents have never received their fair share of city services. Sen. Carraro said that if the vote is allowed and if the vote passes, a new city could be established in two years.

Other news from the meeting:

- ◆ More funding is needed for the I-40 & Coors interchange work
- ◆ Plans are going forward to build homes in Volcano Cliffs on the escarpment above Taylor Ranch
- ◆ A dog park will be established on the Westside in a few years

Board Meeting — February 18 — 7:00 PM

Vaughan Co. Realtors – 6300 Riverside Plaza, Suite 100 (Bldg just north of Defined Fitness)

From the desk of Lieutenant Ed Perea . . . APD Westside Area Command

Over the last couple of years we have met to discuss areas of public safety and issues of concern from Westside residents. What is usually at the top of the list of concerns is traffic and speeding in your neighborhoods.

We will continue to work hard to address those concerns.

During the last legislative session Westside representatives, spearheaded by Representative Ray Ruiz, secured $75,000.00 for police radar/laser equipment to be used here on the Westside.

That equipment has been ordered and is expected very soon. The monies allocated will purchase 14 Radar units and 15 Laser units. This equipment will go a long way towards achieving our traffic objectives and will help make our streets safer.

If you have any questions give me a call 897-8803.

BE SAFE

Bullying: Is It Just a Normal Part of Growing Up?

Bill and Mary tried to figure out why their son, Jason, had started skipping school. He had always been an enthusiastic student who got along with his teachers and had good friends. But, soon after Jason started 7th grade, they began receiving calls from school notifying them of Jason's absenteeism. They tried to talk to him about it, but he was reluctant to tell them what was going on.

When Bill and Mary discussed the problem with the school principal, he suggested that Jason might be being bullied by the tougher kids. He explained that bullying has become a major problem in this country. Each day, 160,000 students miss class because they're afraid of being bullied. The problem has become so widespread that the U.S. Department of Justice even commissioned a study on the effects of bullying and possible solutions.

Just what is bullying anyway? Bullies typically harass, tease or physically assault other kids. One youngster may pick on another child, or a group of kids may gang up on others. Bullying peaks in the middle school years. Boys are more likely to be bullies than girls, but that trend is changing.

Kids with low self-esteem and poor social skills are prime targets, especially if they cry easily or can't assert themselves verbally or physically. Children who speak or look different are also vulnerable. They may be overweight or slightly built, dress differently or simply live on a particular side of town.

Youngsters who are being bullied may experience sleep disorders, depression, low self-confidence, frequent bouts of crying, tics and other nervous habits, bedwetting, changes in appetite, academic problems, intense rage, and even suicidal thoughts or attempts. Both bullies and their victims are more likely to develop substance abuse problems as adolescents.

Some suggestions for parents whose children are being bullied:

- Encourage your child to stay with friends. This helps develop their social skills and there is strength in numbers. They should also avoid going alone to isolated places like bathrooms or empty classrooms.
- Teach your child to project confidence by standing tall, holding up their head and looking others in the eye when talking.
- Tell your child to ask for help if they feel threatened. Having good communication skills with adults can help deter bullies, and helps children deal with other life challenges.

Editor's Farewell

Dear Neighbors:

It is with much regret that I have resigned my position as Editor of the Mesa Messenger. Family considerations necessitate that I withdraw from this level of service at least for the foreseeable future.

I have thoroughly enjoyed doing the newsletter for all of you and am particularly sorry to give up my position. Please give the new editor, Ceil van Berkel, a warm welcome and send your articles or event notices to her at trna.editor@att.net.

Sincerely,

RayeAnn Tucker ☼

TRNA Board's Response

Moving?

Moving is a busy time with lots of things to remember.

Please put one more item on your list: call TRNA to enter an address change for the Mesa Messenger.

Not calling means you'll miss the mailing and we'll have to pay 1st class postage on the returned newsletter.

Also, if you are going to be away for an extended period, but will return, please let us know before you leave where you are receiving mail and when to resume your regular address delivery.

This may seem like a small thing in the overall picture, but it would ensure that you receive your newsletter in a timely fashion and reduce postal costs for the organization.

Please call 898-9173 with address or delivery changes and leave the details in a voicemail message.

Thank you.

Virginia Klebesadel, Database Steward ☀

New Newsletter Editor

We are seeking a volunteer who would be able to use TRNA's copy of MS Publisher to continue this vital service to our members.

The editor is not required to attend board meetings or become a board member.

If you are interested in becoming the editor, please contact the interim editor by email at trna.editor@att.net or by phone at 899-2738. C. van Berkel ☀
